Main Character

- You play as Wonk the Wizard: an alcoholic and infamously unwise wizard.
- Wonk is an old man with a stupidly entertaining personality who lives as a recluse in a tower in the middle of a forest.
- He spends most of his free time study nature, inventing new spells and potions, and getting drunk.

Storyline

- Wonk decides he wants to create a new type of magic vodka out of shroom-tatoes.
- He accidentally destroys his shroom-tato farm, and the only other farm is owned by an enchanter named Tim who won't give him any.
- Wonk decides to try to create an invisibility potion to sneak into Tim's lair and steal some shroom-tatoes.

Storyline

- Wonk writes a letter to the nearest library asking if they have a recipe for a potion of invisibility, but mispels invisibility as 'invincibility'.
- Wonk sends the letter via pigeon, but some goblin hunters catch the pigeon mid journey.
- They read the letter, misinterpret it, and think Wonk is trying to get a potion of invincibility to steal from their leader, "The Great Gob".
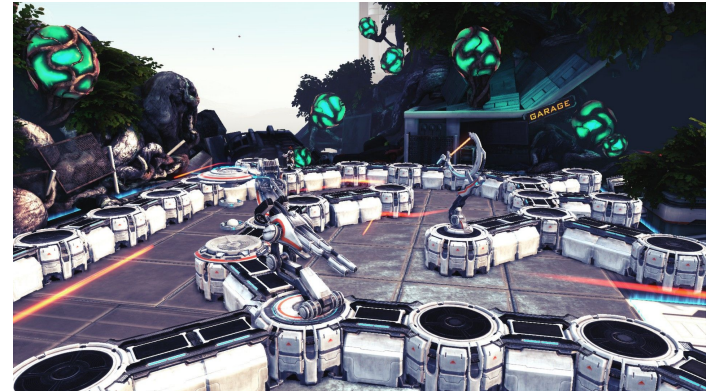

Storyline

- The goblins bring the letter to The Great Gob, and he becomes furious at Wonk.
- The Great Gob then orders an all out attack on Wonk to prevent him from creating a potion of invincibility.
- A goblin army is then sent to attack Wonk's tower.

Storyline

- Wonk detects the goblins coming early and has time to fortify his tower.
- He quickly summons things to help him defend his tower, and between each wave of enemies he heals himself and summons more defenses.
- After Wonk defeats the goblin attack, he spends time fortifying his tower and journeys directly to the library to ask them for a invisibility potion recipe.

Storyline

- Wonk arrives at the library and asks the librarian for a tome that contains a recipe for a potion of invisibility.
- The librarian recognizes Wonk from tales he'd heard of his drunkenness and kicks him out of the library.
- A goblin army then comes to attack the library, and after Wonk defends it the librarian agrees to help him.

Storyline

- The Librarian then tells Wonk the location of a person who borrowed the tome of invisibility out of gratitude for defending the library.
- Wonk then goes on to various places in search of the tome, defending each place from a goblin attack, and then being told the next location the tome went to…

What Kind of Game is This?

- Tower Defense + Top-Down 2D Shooter
    - Waves of enemies appear and try to attack a goal that you must defend.
    - You can defend the goal by summoning barriers and towers to create a maze that the enemies must walk through while being attacked by you and the towers you summoned.

How Does it Work?

- The game is divided up into levels, and levels are divided up into waves.
- Two phases of each wave:
  - Setup
    - You can use mana to summon towers and barriers.
    - You can create a maze of barriers that enemies have to walk through while being attacked
  - Combat
    - You can use your spells to shoot enemies along with your towers.
    - You need to defend the goal and yourself from the enemies
